

CDL Physical

Requirement Checklist

The Department of Transportation medical exam has specific requirements that must be met. In order to make your process go smoothly you must provide the following when you come in for your exam.

If you require correction to your _____ you must bring a pair of glasses with you to the exam.

If you wear _____ you must bring the hearing aids and an extra power source with you.

If you have had a _____ _____ a cardiology consult will be required BEFORE your exam. At your exam, you will need to bring a copy of your most recent cardiac stress test results (must be within 2 years), echo-cardiogram results (if applicable), and a clearance letter from your cardiology.

If you have had a intra-cranial _____ you will require a neurology consult BEFORE your exam.

If you have _____ you are required to bring a letter from your treating provider (primary care provider or endocrinologist) that documents a HgbA1C (<10%) within the past 6 months.

If you are being treated for adult _____ _____ you are required to provide documentation from your primary care provider or mental health provider about your diagnosis, treatment plan including medicine for clearance to drive a commercial vehicle.

If you have _____ you will be requiring documentation confirming compliance with your CPAP machine.

If you take _____ such as Warfrain (Coumadin), you must provide documentation of monthly INR results. You must have therapeutic INR within a month of your certification.

If you have a _____ you must bring documentation of your most recent annual pacemaker check (this must be within the past 12 months).

If you are a older than _____ you will need to have a pulmonary function test (PFT). Please bring the documentation with you.

If you are on any _____ please bring the actual medication bottle with you.

If you are taking _____ medication make sure your blood pressure is less than 140/90 or your certification may be delayed.

If you have an _____ you will need a letter from your vascular surgeon clearing you to drive a commercial vehicle.

If you see a health care provider for any _____ please bring a _____ with you to your exam. It should include: diagnosis, date of onset of the condition, medications (dose and frequency) current limitations and contact information for that provider.

Schedule an appointment today, call 808-456-2273!